ALLEN

Twin Creeks Golf Club | Public

501 Twin Creeks Drive, Allen | 972/390-8888 | twincreeksgolf.com
The Golf Club at Twin Creeks, an 18-hole championship-style golf course, opened in 1995 and was designed by Arnold Palmer. It offers an award-winning golf course that winds its way around two natural, free flowing, tree-lined creeks. It is known as one of the most naturally preserved golf courses in the state and for its peaceful setting.

AZLE

Cross Timbers Golf Course | Public

1181 S Stewart St, Azle | 817/444-4940 | crosstimbersgc.com
The par-72, 18-hole tract winds its way through the hilly, wooded land next to Ash Creek in the "Cross Timbers" area of north Texas. The design takes full advantage of this unique topography, with multiple elevation changes that create a true "Hill Country" feel. Nowhere is this more evident than on the signature hole, #9. A 165-yard par 3, it requires a precise tee shot over a ravine to a green protruding on a cliff, surrounded by a natural rock wall.

BENBROOK

Whitestone Golf Club | Public

10650 Hwy 377 South, Benbrook | 817/249-9996 | whitestonegolf.com
The 18-hole championship course was co-designed by nationally-known golf architects Jeff Brauer and Jay Morrish. Brauer has designed such well-known Texas courses as the Cowboys Golf Club and Tangleridge Golf Club. They have four sets of tees that let every player decide exactly how challenging you want their course to be. If you have the game, you can play it from the Gold Tees at 7,117 yards. Our other tee choices are 6,615 yards, 6,084 yards, and 5,201 yards.

BRIDGEPORT

The Club at Runaway Bay | Public

400 Halfmoon Way, Bridgeport | 940/575-2225 | rbgolf.com
One of the first things you will notice about this championship golf course is the ultra-smooth SR 1020 Bentgrass greens. These greens roll as smooth as any that you have ever played on. The tree-lined fairways and multiple elevation changes create the perfect venue for golf. Runaway Bay's meticulously manicured course, with its beautiful views of Lake Bridgeport and the surrounding area, provides an up-close look at the splendor Mother Nature has to offer.

BURLESON

Hidden Creek Golf Course | Public

555 E. Hidden Creek Pkwy, Burleson | 817/447-4444 | hiddencreekgc.com
As a part of the course design, many natural features are advantaged. Mature mesquite and hardwood stands gently remind the player that short and straight is better than long and off-center. The course lets you use every tool in your bag as many holes utilize multiple landing zones that depend on careful shot selection. The tees are generous, offering a new look at the fairway each day.

Southern Oaks Golf Club | Public

13765 Southern Oaks Dr, Burleson | 817/426-2400 | southernoaksgolf.com
