WWW.HURSTTX.GOV

Hurst is a city in Tarrant County, Texas, United States. It is one of the Mid-Cities between Fort Worth and Dallas and is a suburb of Fort Worth. Hurst was incorporated as a general law city in September of 1952 with a total population of 2,700. Today the population, according to the U.S. Census data for 2013, is 38,448. It was named after William "Uncle Billy" Hurst in 1909. In 1903 "Uncle Billy" agreed to let the railroad lay track connecting Fort Worth and Dallas on his land with the condition that a stop be established there, and a depot built and given his name. The Rock Island Station was built in 1903 and, along with the surrounding community, was finally officially given the name Hurst in 1909.
