

City of Kingsland

Kingsland is an unincorporated town of about 6,500 people nestled in the Hill Country and Highland Lakes area of Central Texas about an hour northwest of Austin and an hour and a half north of San Antonio. Kingsland is the perfect getaway location because of its year-round activities that are offered. Visitors can boat, fish, swim, golf, and picnic. Bluebonnets and wildflowers bloom in Kingsland during the spring months, making it a popular tourist attraction.

Parks & Recreation

The Slab on the Llano River in Kingsland

Farm to Market Rd 3404
The Slab in Kingsland is probably not really a park but the people enjoy it that same as a park. It is on the Llano River and offers a very large sandy beach area for playing in the sand and sunbathing. The water is shallow enough for small children for wading and playing in the water, and looking for sea shells. It is a favorite in Kingsland. To find The Slab, turn west at the blinking yellow light on Hwy 1431 on the north edge of Kingsland and go straight to The Slab. You can't miss it.

Kingsland Community Park

119 Christopher Street
The Kingsland Community Park (formerly the Lions Club Park) in Kingsland has a boat launch on Lake LBJ and has three boat docks. You can swim in the lake and fish at the park. Some concrete picnic tables are available for picnics. It has a great location on Lake LBJ. You can find the signs directing you to the park from Hwy 1431 between the bridge and the stop light in Kingsland. It is located at the end of Williams Street on Lake LBJ.
