Melissa ISD is a Recognized School District, including EXEMPLARY rated Harry McKillop Elementary and Melissa Ridge Intermediate Schools. In addition to excelling academically, Melissa ISD offers innovative approaches to learning for its students. During the 2008-09 school year, the Melissa ISD entered into an exciting partnership with Texas A&M Commerce to offer Melissa High School juniors and seniors the opportunity to participate in a dual credit program. Additionally the Melissa ISD partners with area employers to encourage students to excel in math and science as part of a unique engineering program.
