Golf Courses

Stewart Peninsula Golf Course

Inspired by both Scotland's classic links architecture courses and California's Monterey Peninsula coastal courses, this Tripp Davis design presents unique challenges on every hole, which force choices. The wind factor changes every two holes. The 9th/18th hole, a terraced par five, reminiscent of the classic seaside holes at Harbor Town and Pebble Beach, rewards precise aggressive play and punishes thoughtless shots. 100 Cottonwood Springs Dr #4619 972-625-8700 stewartpeninsulagolf.com

Old American Golf Club

In the spirit of greats, such as Shinnecock and Prairie Dunes, take yourself back in time and experience the Golden Age of golf course architecture. As a throw-back to the 1920's and 1930's, players will enjoy the authenticity, lakeside views and serene setting Old American provides. Expect the unexpected. From naturally formed bunkers rarely seen in golf today, to native grasses that preserve wildlife, water, and the environment. 1000 Lebanon Rd 972-370-5465 golfclubsatthetribute.com

The Tribute Golf Links

Maybe you have the opportunity to play some of the legendary courses in Scotland, such as St. Andrews, Muirfield, or Royal Troon. If you have, you will enjoy the comparison. If you haven't, you will encounter the game like no other. The Tribute course was designed by renowned golf course architect Tripp Davis and is a tribute to some of the most famous and challenging holes in all of Scotland. The Tribute is a true links-style course featuring the finest elements of traditional Scottish golf, including wind-swept dunes, sea-washed grasses and challenging water hazards. 1000 Lebanon Rd 972-370-5465 golfclubsatthetribute.com
