

VIRTUAL Concerts & Events

Don't let staying in get you down! If you're missing live music experiences during the period of social distancing, tune into these live streaming concerts and events, or browse through superbly curated musical archives at your leisure.

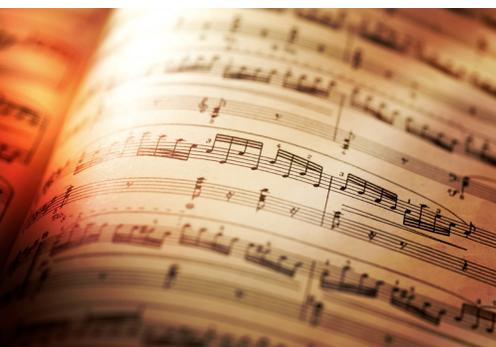

Live Stream Concerts & Musical Archives

Billboard Live At-Home

As the title suggests, "Live At-Home" captures live performances from artists while they're quarantined in their homes. Each "Billboard Live At-Home" performer will choose a nonprofit partner to support with their live stream, including such worthy causes as My Friend's Place, American Red Cross, Center for Disaster Philanthropy, Meals on Wheels America, Direct Relief, National Coalition for the Homeless, Housing Works Inc., Downtown Women's Center, MusiCares and more charities working overtime to help those impacted by the coronavirus pandemic.

The Grammy Museum – Museum at Home

While the Grammy Museum in Los Angeles is currently closed, it has created a section on its website called "Museum at Home," where never-before-released content from the museum's archives have been made available to the public. This hub offers a collection of lessons, virtual exhibits, and interviews with musicians, so aspiring musicians and fans can continue to immerse themselves in music education during the museum's closure. The tagline of the section is "doors closed, mission open."

NPR Music

NPR Music offers current and archival podcasts, live concert webcasts, reviews, music lists, news, studio sessions, and interviews to listen to from NPR and partner public radio stations across the country, as well as an index of public radio music stations streaming live on the internet.

Keep it Local – Concerts & Events

Fusebox Festival 2020: Virtual Edition

Fusebox is a weekend-long broadcast taking place April 24-26 that reimagines the 2020 festival for an online audience. This Virtual Edition will feature live-streamed performances, conversations, studio visits, interactive activities, happy hours, a Fusebox Day-Spa, exhibitions and much more.

Friday '80s Night

Every Friday, Barbarella is throwing a house party like no other. Their regular Friday '8s Night is coming to you live via Instagram live streaming! Tune in and watch all the great 1980s music videos that you'd normally catch at the venue. The Friday night DJ will be pumping out the party from around 9:30pm to 2:30am. So, put on your red shoes and dance the blues! Venmo tip jar for staff: Barbarella_atx

Austin City Limits Live TV

Missing live shows from the iconic Austin City Limits at the Moody Theater in downtown Austin? Catch up on the latest tapings from the longest-running music series on American television with the PBS archives of Austin City Limits. Fan-favorite episodes from the recently broadcast Season 45 are available for streaming, in addition to the entire slate of programs from the previous two seasons of the acclaimed concert showcase.

Virtual Sound of Our Town

Sun Radio is maintaining a list of local Central Texas artists who are performing live from their homes, as part of their regular Sound of Our Town series. Local artists can submit their streaming shows and listeners can tune in and donate to support each of the musicians and bands.

Live from Indy Terrace by Austin Opera

Join Austin Opera for a new broadcast concert series on Facebook, where you'll see world-class artists performing from the rehearsal hall. The series features performances by artists like Metropolitan Opera Competition winner, soprano Elena Villalón, Austin Opera Principal Coach and pianist, Nyle Matsuoka, and more.

Independence Title

IndependenceTitle.com