THE GALLERIA HOUSTON

The Galleria, an international shopping destination that hosts more than 24 million visitors annually, offers world-class shopping with more than 375 stores, 30 restaurants, two hotels, and a full-sized ice rink. The Galleria is home to a who's who list of designers, including Louis Vuitton, Cartier, Chanel, Jimmy Choo, and Ralph Lauren, among many others.

A range of restaurants to suit every taste can be found throughout The Galleria—from steakhouses and dumpling bars to sandwich shops and fast food. On the lowest level, in the heart of the food court, guests can put their skating skills to the test on an ice rink made famous by Olympian Tara Lipinski or grab the kids and head for the child-focused Little Galleria Play Area, located on the second level.

SHOPPING

From high fashion to everyday necessities, The Galleria offers unprecedented shopping options for even the most distinguished shopper. It is home to the largest number of couture and luxury retailers in the area, including Chanel, Christian Louboutin, Louis Vuitton and Tiffany & Co., as well as mainstream brands like Apple, Banana Republic, Nordstrom and Macy's.

Each year, more than 30 million people from near and far are drawn to the exquisite collection of stores at The Galleria, the fifth largest retail complex in the United States, and to the lush, open-air social haven of Uptown Park, where big city meets southern hospitality. Hundreds of other specialty shops and boutiques are sprinkled throughout the area, offering a variety of options including BLVD Place, Centre at Post Oak and Post Oak Shopping Center.
