

2019 Wurstfest

Nov. 1st - 10th | New Braunfels

Sprechen sie fun?

For nearly 60 years, Wurstfest has been a unique celebration of German heritage, complete with food, music, and everything you'd expect from a Bavarian festival! German, Texan and domestic beer will be available. Be sure to visit the biergarten for a selection of over 30 craft beers from Texas and beyond! There are also plenty of unique shopping opportunities, as well as midway rides and other entertainment.

Admission

Once you've paid for admission, you'll have access to the entire festival grounds. Children under 12 are admitted free of charge!

If you need to leave the festival grounds, don't worry! Admission is good for the whole day, so just make sure you get your hand stamped at the gate before leaving.

For more detailed info, visit Wurstfest.com

Food & Drink

If Bavarian festivals are known for one thing, it's the food and drinks! Food is available throughout the festival grounds for cash, while beer can be obtained with tickets. ATMs are available! Outside food and drinks are prohibited.

Parking

Parking is limited near the festival grounds, so be prepared to walk or take a shuttle service from your hotel, motel, or resort if one is available.

Visit Wurstfest.com for more information.